

Names _____ Title _____

Honors Anatomy & Physiology
Rubric for Neurological Disease PowerPoint Project

Technical Organization/Structure/ Delivery of Presentation	Content of Presentation	Written Portion	Project Requirements	Areas to Strengthen Report
10 Points Possible	45 Points Possible	12 Points Possible	GRADING	8 Points Possible
Font size is legible from anywhere in the room; Smooth slide transition; Color choice is appropriate for viewing; Required graphics are included and clear. Volume of presenter is audible throughout the room, voice is clear; Presenter shows enthusiasm and knowledge of the subject; Ideas and topics are organized in a logical progression; Correct pronunciation is used.	Ideas are organized in a logical progression and include: Facts; History of Disorder/Disease; Signs and/or Symptoms; Causes and/or Risk Factors; Screening &amp; Diagnosis; Complications; Treatments and/or Prevention; Current Research (if available).	Title Page - which includes all required information. Brief Synopsis of Genetic Disorder - which introduces the topic and gives a brief overview of the disorder which includes causes and/or risk factors, and signs and/or symptoms. Presentation Outline - which lists the PowerPoint slides and any additional information which will be included in the presentation. Bibliography - All sources are correctly cited.	ADVANCED 90%  TOTAL POINTS POSSIBLE = 67	Additional Information: Interviews with doctors, patients, health care providers, etc. Graphics, Video Clips, Posters, Pamphlets, Demonstrations, etc.
Font size is legible on most slides but not all; Minor slide transition difficulty; Color, at times, detracts from the content; Required graphics are included and clear. Volume of presenter is audible throughout the room, voice is clear; Presenter shows knowledge of the subject; Ideas and topics are somewhat organized in a logical progression; Correct pronunciation is used.	Ideas and topics are somewhat organized in a logical progression. History of Disorder/Disease; Signs and/or Symptoms; Causes and/or Risk Factors; Limited Screening &amp; Diagnosis; Complications; Few Treatments and/or Prevention.	Title Page - which includes most of the required information. Brief Synopsis of Genetic Disorder - which introduces the topic and gives a brief overview of the disorder which includes causes and/or risk factors, and a few signs and/or symptoms. Presentation Outline - which lists the PowerPoint slides, and some additional information. Bibliography - Most sources are correctly cited.	PROFICIENT 80%  TOTAL POINTS POSSIBLE = 60
Font size is legible on some but not most of the slides; Slide transition is awkward and difficult to follow; Color choice makes it difficult to view and read text; Omitted graphics. Volume of presenter is audible throughout most of the room; Presenter shows some knowledge of the subject; Ideas and topics are somewhat organized; Correct pronunciation is used in most cases.	Ideas and topics are somewhat organized. Signs and/or Symptoms; Causes and/or Risk Factors; Limited or Missing Screening &amp; Diagnosis; Complications; Few or No Treatments and/or Prevention.	Title Page - which includes most of the required information. Brief Synopsis of Genetic Disorder - which introduces the topic and gives a brief overview of the disorder which lacks causes and/or risk factors, and a few or no signs and/or symptoms. Presentation Outline - which lists only the PowerPoint slides. Bibliography - sources are incorrectly cited.	BASIC 70%  TOTAL POINTS POSSIBLE = 53
Slide transition is distracting; Text and/or pictures are hard to view due to poor color choice; No graphics at all; Volume of presenter is not audible throughout the room; Presenter shows little knowledge of the subject; Ideas and topics are not organized and lack a logical progression; Correct pronunciation is rarely used.	Ideas and topics are not organized and lack a logical progression. Signs and/or Symptoms; Causes and/or Risk Factors; Missing Screening &amp; Diagnosis; Missing Complications; Few or No Treatments and/or Prevention.	Title Page - which includes most of the required information. Brief Synopsis of Genetic Disorder - which introduces the topic and gives a brief overview of the disorder which lacks causes and/or risk factors, and lacks signs and/or symptoms. Presentation Outline - does not use the PowerPoint slides. Bibliography - sources are incorrectly cited.	BELOW BASIC 60%  TOTAL POINTS POSSIBLE = 45	TOTAL POINTS POSSIBLE =  <hr/>75