

HONORS ANATOMY & PHYSIOLOGY

Neurological Disease/Disorder Power Point Presentation

This assignment is to be done either in groups of two or individually.

All topics must be approved by the instructor first.

The Presentation to the class should be 15 minutes (20 minutes maximum).

There is a written portion (see below)!

This project is worth 50 points (maybe more!)

Grades will be based upon -

Technical Organization and Structure of Power Point And Delivery of Presentation:

Font size is legible from anywhere in the room

Smooth slide transition

Color choice is appropriate for viewing

Volume of presenter is audible throughout the room, voice is clear.

Presenter shows enthusiasm and knowledge of the subject.

Ideas and topics are organized in a logical progression.

Correct pronunciation is used.

Content of Presentation -

Facts

History of Disorder/Disease

Signs and/or Symptoms

Causes (Genetic?) and/or Risk Factors

Screening & Diagnosis

Complications

Treatments and/or Prevention

Current Research (if available)

Additional Information (These can include interviews with doctors, patients, health care providers, etc. Or any other additional items to enhance your presentations - video clips, posters, pamphlets, demonstrations, etc.)

Written portion to be turned in before presentation -

Title Page - which includes all required information.

Brief Synopsis of Neurological Disorder - which introduces the topic and gives a brief overview of the disorder which includes causes and/or risk factors, and signs and/or symptoms.

Presentation Outline - which lists the PowerPoint slides and any additional information which will be included in the presentation.

Bibliography - All sources must be correctly cited.

PRESENTATIONS BEGIN ON _____

TOPIC CHOSEN _____

MY PRESENTATION DATE _____